

CHAPTER 11-000 LIVING ARRANGEMENTS

For Long-Term Care see 477 NAC 23-001.

11-001 LIVING ARRANGEMENT: With the exception of the situations listed below, an individual is eligible regardless of the living arrangement.

11-001.01 Ineligible Living Arrangements: An individual is not eligible to receive Medicaid if in a prison, jail, or a veteran's hospital. A child is ineligible if s/he is residing in a detention facility, forestry camp, training school, or any other facility that is operated primarily for the detention of children who are determined to be delinquent. See 479 NAC 3-003.04.

11-002 ABSENCE

11-002.01 Absence Because of Schooling: The child's absence from home for the purpose of attending school does not affect eligibility.

11-002.02 Temporary Absence from the Home: A child is still considered part of the household while s/he is out of the home for a visit not to exceed three months. A child is still considered part of the original household while s/he is on summer visitation.

11-002.03 Temporary Absence Due to Emergency Situations: In emergency situations that deprive the child of a parent's or relative's, or guardian or conservator's care, temporary plans may be made to care for the child in the home of an individual or institution acting in the place of the parent or relative. The unit may continue to receive assistance for the period of the emergency or the time actually required to make new arrangements for care, but the assistance must not continue beyond three months.
